DEDICATION

This year the yearbook staff dedicates the 1970 Mariner to one who has tried to promote spirit and pride in Harbor High School.

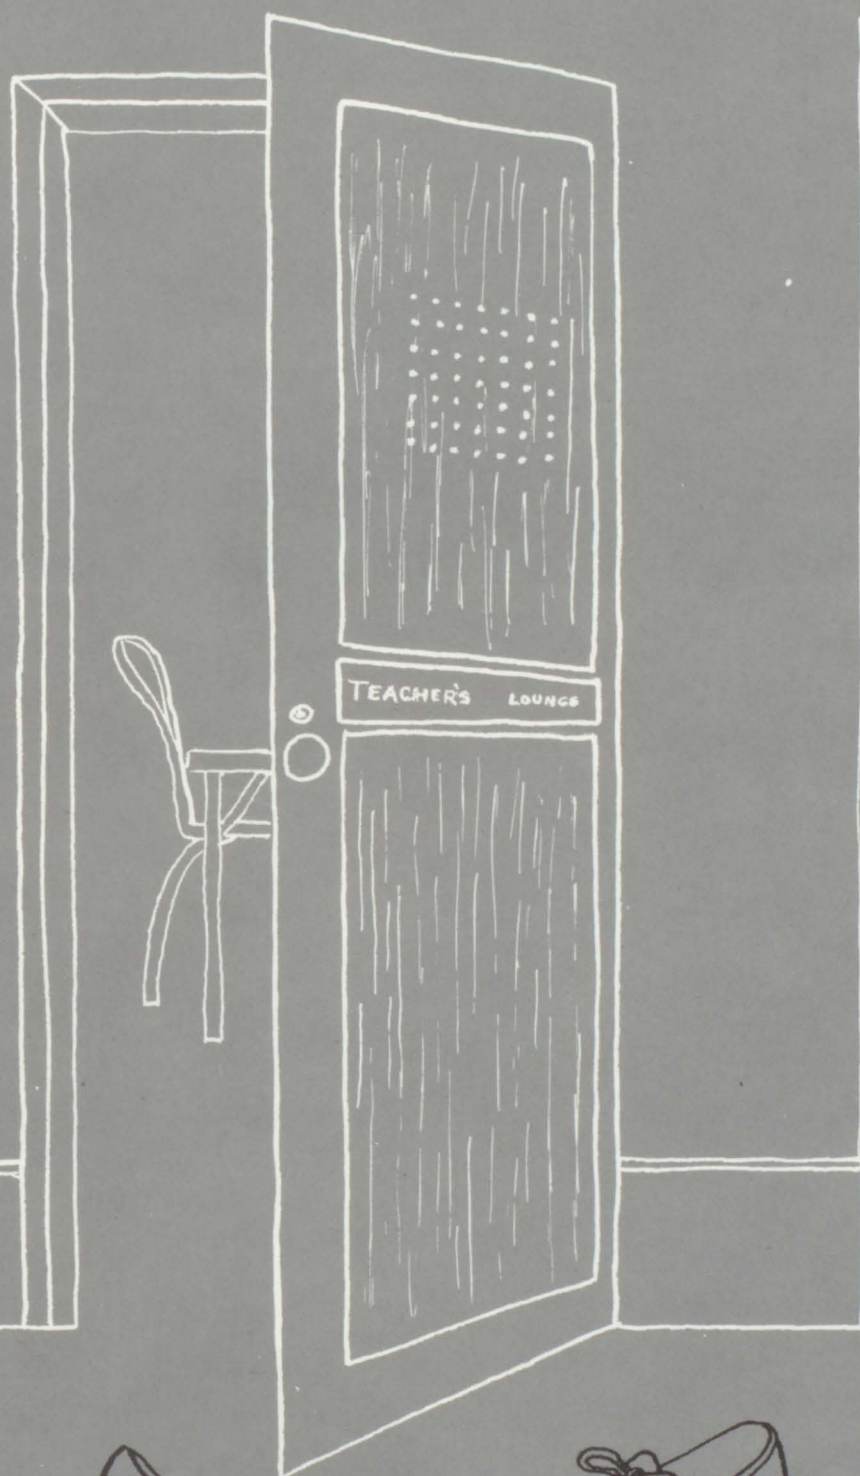

Although it is not customary to dedicate the yearbook to someone so new to the school, his efforts to help the students "Set the Pace" have certainly warranted him this title.

His opening speech to the students at the beginning of the year inspired the theme which we chose for our yearbook. Our theme is "Setting the Pace" and our dedication is to Joseph E. Cochran.

ADMINISTRATION

A. A. CANDELA
Assistant Superintendent

DR. ROGER T. BEITLER
Superintendent of Schools

Students and Class of 1970, I welcome the pleasure and opportunity to communicate with you through this edition of the Mariner, whose staff and adviser I congratulate for a job well done.

It has been a privilege to serve as principal of Harbor High School. Why Harbor? Because of its traditions, its people, its achievements, and its spirit.

In September we adopted a slogan: "We shall set the pace; others may follow if they can." In all endeavors--academic, class, activities, athletics--we have set precedents hard to equal.

Many have shown why Harbor has been recognized as a superior school of which students, teachers, and principal are proud to be a part.

Seniors, your span of living has been enriched and expanded by your experiences, challenges, goals, and knowledge gained here. We hope that you will enjoy a successful future and that you will remember Harbor.

Joseph P. Cochran

Congratulations to the Senior Class.

You have just attained one of your greatest goals, but don't let it end here. This is the beginning, not a stopping or resting place.

You are now young adults, and soon you will be on your own. You will need to think clearly, make a good impression, give your best willingly, and make use of your knowledge. The competition will be great, but you can cope with this if you will use the tools and faith that you have received, which is necessary for continued pursuit.

Continue in the pursuit of knowledge, and life will be filled with joy and rich experiences.

I wish you all success in the years to come.

Robert E. Purtilo

SENIORS

Early in our freshman year we began our money-making projects. Through candy and napkin sales, pop bottle drives, and the one-act plays we learned to know and co-operate with each other while accumulating the largest treasury in Harbor's history.

Memories of underclassman years include our freshman Easter egg sale--TWO THOUSAND chocolate eggs with no wrappers or identification! We had to taste them. The customers received the right kinds, but not until the freshmen had sampled them! Our 10th grade year concluded with the collection of all those non-returnable bottles, and all those balloons at the basketball tournaments.

Our junior year brought new and broadening experiences to all. We cheered our football team enthusiastically through an undefeated season, proud that our classmates were instrumental in each victory.

THE CLASS OF 1970

With the dramatic productions came a chance for the class of 1970 to show its varied talents, as members played major roles in the musical WONDERFUL TOWN and the drama ALL MY SONS. Some of us will never forget those Irish cops, that Conga line, a certain bass drum, and especially Felix's pizza and roll call.

At last the long anticipated prom week arrived. We put aside any personal differences and strove to make our most important class project a success. Together, we faced those untimely chemistry tests, reluctant gold fish, and an acute shortage of hope. We could never forget secretly nailing the mural to the wall, wading in that frigid water, and waiting in silence for what seemed like hours for the moat to leak. Most of all, the memories of our beautiful "Legends of Avalon" and the co-operation and comradeship that made the prom a success will be treasured always.

Harbor seemed to have changed to us as we began our senior year. We missed classmates who had transferred to the new VoEd school. A new administration and unfamiliar faculty members had to be adjusted to. Suddenly we had no one to look up to--we were on top!

We soon took our places as Harbor's pacesetters, excelling in sports, music, dramatics, and scholarship.

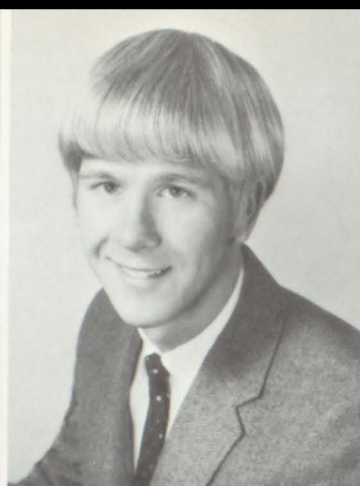

Highlights of our Senior year included Homecoming Queen Aimee, IF A MAN ANSWERS, Nini, "setting the pace", delinquent spelling tests, a Powder Puff football team, and yearbook, deadlines.

Finally we reached Baccalaureate and Commencement with feelings of nostalgia, relief, success, and hope.

Now we must face the future's challenge. The firm foundation we have established during our years at HHS will help us continue in straight paths.

IN MEMORIAM

NORMA JEAN FOLTZ

Norma came to us in our sophomore year, so we only had a short time to get to know her.

Most of us remember her as being a quiet person, though her smile gave a message of friendship and happiness.

Although we didn't know her long, we will never forget her.

SCOTT J. CRANDALL

Most of our Senior Class started out being friends with Scott the very first day of kindergarten. As the years went on, our acquaintance became warmer and closer.

You could always depend on Scott for that needed encouragement or smile.

Scott was active in Cross Country, Hi-Y Teens, Intramurals, Latin Club, Senior Men, Stage Crew, and Wrestling. He was one person who we could say was a friend to everyone.

As freshmen in high school, surroundings new to them, the Class of 1973 soon began working as a unit.

After cheerleaders were chosen and class officers elected, they began their first money-making project, a car wash. Later in the year they had a successful candy sale.

HEADLINERS

The date-May 5, the Monday before one of the biggest events of the year. School was going almost normally for the seniors, sophomores, and freshmen except for occasional cries of "Keep that gym door closed!" ringing through the halls, and seeing truckloads of lumber and concrete zooming past classroom windows.

Meanwhile, thousands of juniors swarmed in and out of the gym carrying such odd materials as orange juice cans or glitter, and not one leaving without a smudge of paint on his forehead or all over his clothes.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

LEGENDS OF AVALON

Saturday arrived, and Harbor no longer had a Fawcett gymnasium, but a replica of Avalon, the home of the "once and future king"- Arthur.

Guests at the dance entered the lobby, decorated as the dining room of King Arthur's legendary castle Avalon.

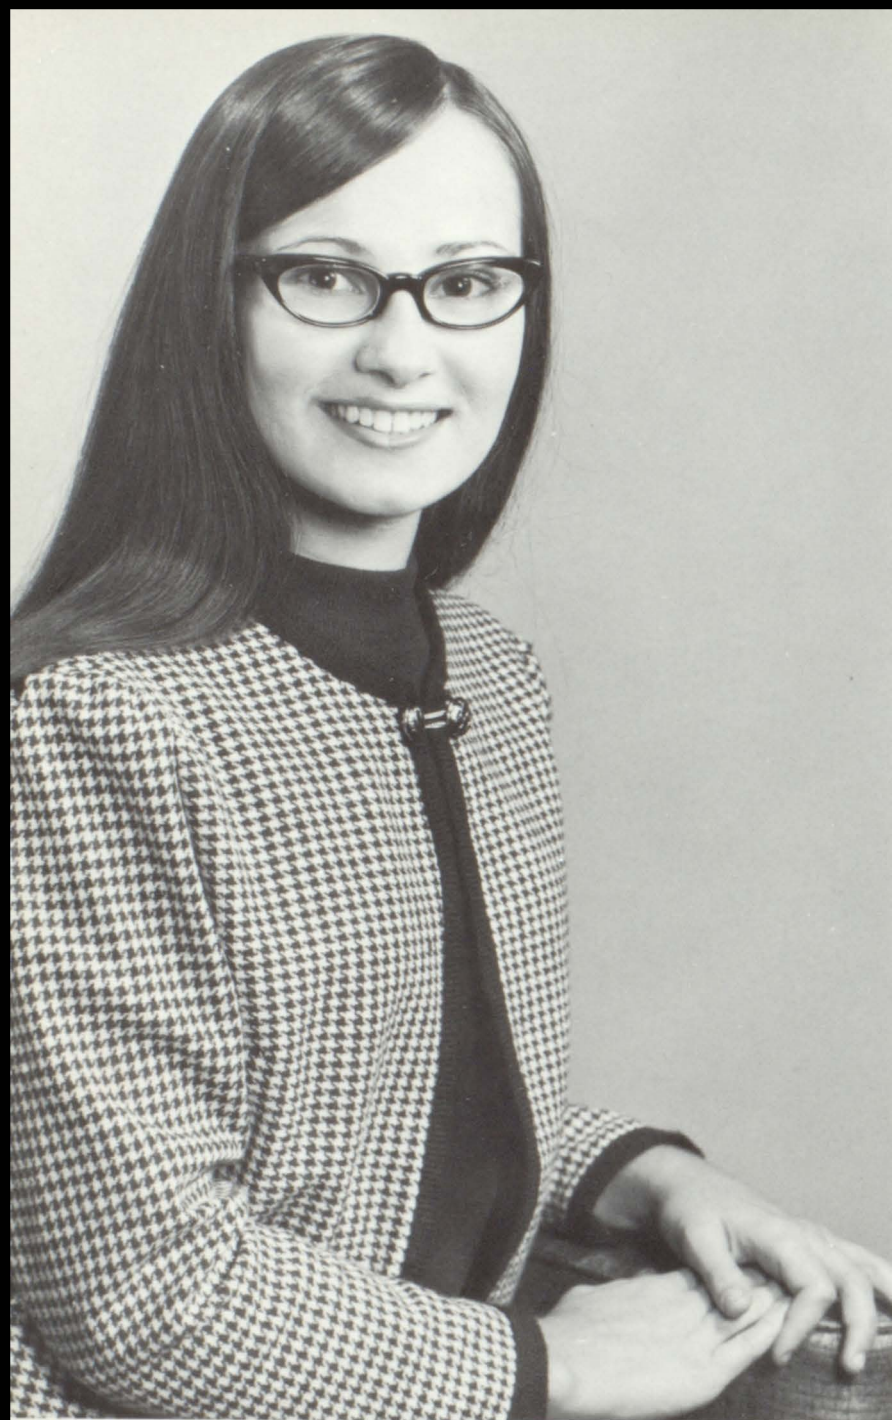

Linda Valerio and Rick McGriff were crowned Queen and King not only of the Prom, but of one evening's return to the age of chivalry.

HOMECOMING

Aimee Ferry was crowned Homecoming Queen at the Harbor-Pymatuning Valley football game Friday Oct. 3.

About 200 students attended the homecoming dance held Oct. 4 in Fawcett Gym from 8:30 to 11:30. The dance featured a group from Denver, Colorado, called The Justice.

The highlight of the evening came when the homecoming court and the queen were introduced with their escorts.

NEGAR DANA

During her stay in America Nini resides with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hemphill, their daughters -- Sue, Janet, and Leigh -- and their sons -- Ted and Thomas (Teak). Sue and Ted are both students at Harbor.

Nini is active and outgoing. She belongs to many clubs, including Modern Dancers, GAA, AFS, Art Club, FTA, Hi-Y Teens, Thespians, and Senior Girls. Her hobbies include piano, dancing, music, and reading, and she enjoys swimming, tennis, and ice skating.

SITTING ON THE FLOOR are Leigh Ann and Teak, holding Beansy. ON THE SOFA are Janet, holding Bippy, Mr. and Mrs. Hemphill, and Ted. Sue and Nini are STANDING IN BACK.

EXCHANGE STUDENT

1969—1970

Nini considers teenagers all over the world essentially alike. "We all want the same things."

As for Americans, she says, "I found them kinder than I thought they would be. We had impressions of very large cities, but I find not all of them are large. Ashtabula is really nice -- calm, not many exciting or amusing things in it, but there are many wonderful people."

"I think Harbor is a very sincere high school with a lot of kind kids," she commented. "My most favorable impression is the kids, all the activities and the spirit."

When Nini goes home, she will go to Italy to study industrial design. She is also interested in computers.

IF A MAN ANSWERS

Set in the big city of New York, "If a Man Answers," the junior class play, dealt with the adventures of a young woman who was job-and-husband-hunting at the same time.

Joanne Fisher and Kathy Frisbie, double-cast in the lead, ended up marrying a photographer. Cathy Millberg and Marti McMillan, as Chantal's mother, gave them some advice that led to a succession of hilarious situations.

The play was presented Nov. 14 and 15.

"THE EGG AND I"

The senior class play, was presented March 13 and 14 in the auditorium.

Lead roles were played by Linda Burns, Frank Laird, Mary Ellen Acierno, and Eileen Shaul.

"BEST OF BROADWAY" VARIETY SHOW

"The Best of Broadway" was the theme of the 29th Annual Mariner Variety Show, presented Feb. 18 and 19, 1970, in the auditorium.

The A Cappella Choir and Ricki Sharp as the Goddess of Liberty concluded the program.

Proceeds of $700 were divided between the Thespians and the Mariner newspaper.

IT'S ACADEMIC

Harbor again participated in the television program "It's Academic." Our representatives on the show were Mark Reed, who was captain, Chris Cummins, and Marti McMillan. There were four alternates: Judy Hellman, Mike Detore, Leslie Sommer, and Pete Gustafson. Our opponents this year were Jefferson High and Cleveland's Lincoln High.

"It's Academic" was taped by WEWS, Sunday December 14, 1969 at 4:30 p.m. It was televised Saturday, January 17 at 7:00 p.m. Although Harbor did not win, they were close competitors in the first and second rounds. It was in the third round, known as the "grab bag," that Harbor met their problems. Harbor finished behind Jefferson High along with Lincoln High. Even though our score was not the highest, our representatives are to be commended for a fine job.

MARINER STAFF

Students enrolled in the journalism classes publish eight editions of the Mariner newspaper during the school year, one each month from October through May.

They collect news, write stories, paste-up the paper, and distribute copies free of charge to the student body.

ROW. 1. Sue Lauterbach, Allan Goldstein, Cheryl Ventura, Tom Grey. ROW 2. Candy Erickson, Sheila Boggs, Val Collins, Linda Sandfield, Dennis Palm.

ROW 1. Pam Campbell, Shelley Klingler, Robin Rice, Ricki Sharp, Linda Burns. ROW 2. Tim Kalil, Gloria Glatz, Sandy Cartner, Caryn Cupach, Nancy Weaver, David Scott.

The staff is a team whose success depends on the ability and responsibility of each individual.

Sometimes everyone is in his own corner working, but as deadlines grow nearer and paste-up time is near, everyone gets in the act.

EDITOR'S NOTE

We would like to express our sincere thanks to all the people who have helped us produce the 1970 Mariner yearbook. It is the product of much hustle and hurry, of many headaches and heartaches.

Our special thanks go to Miss Mary Boyce, our adviser, who guided us all the way from the cover to the last page of advertising; to Mr. Pete Prentner, our yearbook representative; to Art Taylor and Bill Friedel, our photographers.

We hope you get as much joy out of the '70 Mariner as we got putting it together.

STUDENT COUNCIL

In this year of demonstrations and protests in other areas, the Student Council of Harbor High School stepped forward to express students' views and provide better communication between the student body and the administration.

The Council's representatives, elected by homerooms, discussed such topics as the dress code, school discipline, hall guards, promoting school spirit, and suggestions proposed by students.

Leading the school socially, the Student Council sponsored several dances, including the Computer Dance in March. Everyone wanting to do so filled out a computer card and came stag to this dance, where he or she met a computer matched date.

The Student Council elected a boy and a girl each month for outstanding participation in school activities. These were called Students-of-the-Month.

The Harbor Band, directed by Oliver Kaura and Laurence Landfried, spent many hours this year practicing for its heavy schedule of performances.

Starting in August and continuing through class periods when school started, the band members were at times close to heat exhaustion and at others near frostbite, working out marching drills and routines. Their practice paid off, however, with the excellent pre-game and half-time shows during the football season.

In November, the band began indoor rehearsal for its many concerts. It presented programs at the Veteran's Day Assembly, Winter Concert, Spring Concert in the Prom decorated gymnasium, and various other school assemblies.

Under the direction of Robert Allshouse, the choir performed at several school assemblies, the Parent Visitation Night, and, with the band, at winter and "pop" concerts.

This year the choir did something different from previous years. They sang some modern "rock" music and were accompanied by electric guitars and drums.

Promoting creativity, initiative, and cooperation with new dance forms is the aim of the Modern Dancers.

The club's members traveled on field trips to Cleveland and Erie to observe other dancers and improve their own dancing.

In the spring, a Festival of Dance was presented in the auditorium. Members performed various acts and routines for the parents and friends attending.

ART CLUB

The Harbor High School Art Club worked on acquainting its members with different and interesting mediums and use of art. It also provided its members not taking art with art instruction.

Field trips to nearby art museums and art shows were scattered throughout the year, as well as excursions to the beach for projects such as sand-casting.

Members experimented with weaving, tapestry, sculpture, and photography as new arts. These experiments were on display in the hall many times.

NATIONAL THESPIANS

Nominees who earned the required points from acting performances were initiated at a banquet at Howard Johnson's.

Thespians produced the junior-senior plays, the variety show, and a one-act play contest for grades 8, 9, and 10.

Members attended college and professional shows.

AFS

The American Field Service promotes better international relationships, mainly through sponsoring exchange students between the U.S. and foreign countries.

The AFS collected money in home-rooms every Wednesday in the "Penny Wednesday" campaign. This money is used in sponsoring our own exchange student.

Members worked hard on a booth and display of AFS activities for the International Bazaar, sponsored by the Zonta Club at the Hotel Ashtabula in November.

To supplement Penny Wednesday collections, the club sold greeting cards at Christmas.

OFFICERS ARE ROW 1. Miss Dianne Carella, adviser; Teresa Steele, vice president; Linda Tuomala, president; ROW 2. Cheryl Ventura, secretary; Caryn Cupach, treasurer.

FTA

The Future Teachers of America seeks to show its members various opportunities and fields of teaching, as well as providing some social activities.

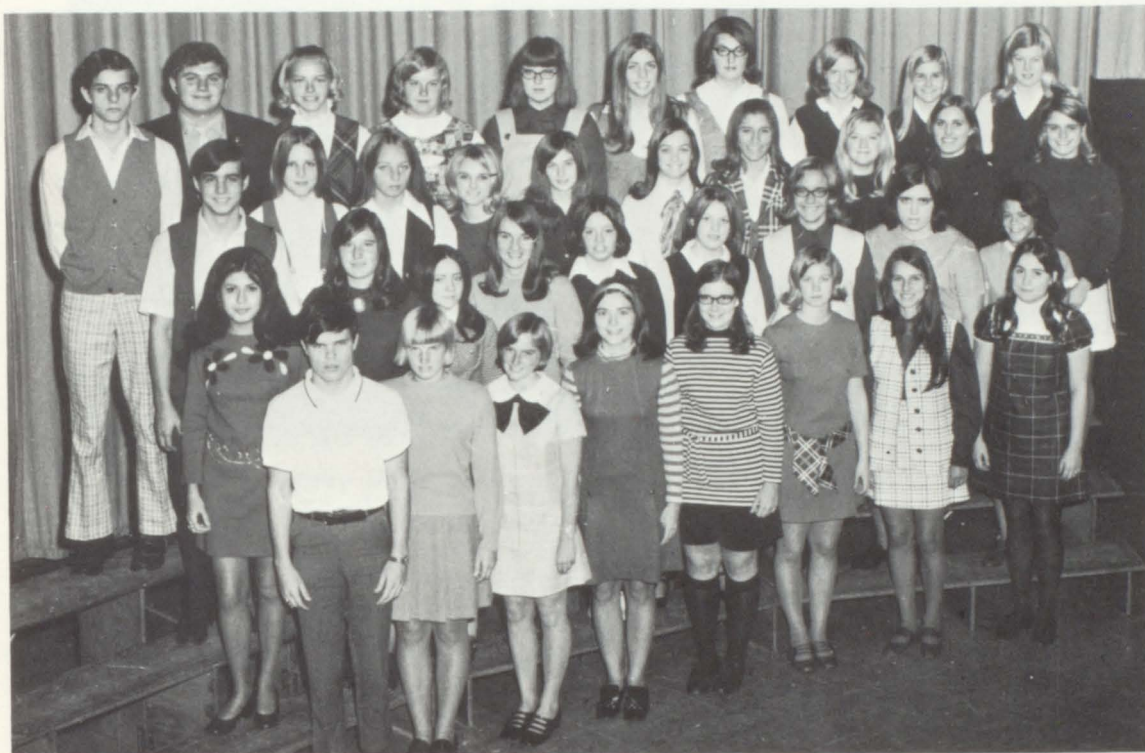

During the year members substituted for teachers in the city junior high and elementary schools, where they learned first-hand the trials -- and rewards -- of being a teacher.

A noisy hayride, bobbing for apples, riddles with teachers' names, and especially refreshments combined to make the club's annual Halloween party a success.

The FTA held several bake sales to increase the treasury. With the money it adopted a needy family at Christmas time and repaired toys for the Children's Home. In October Debbie Goodman, a Harbor senior, was elected treasurer at a regional FTA convention held in Cleveland.

HI-Y TEENS

The Hi-Y Teens is a service organization, with many social programs added, for sophomores, juniors, and seniors.

The members had such programs as fortune telling, archery instruction, and a taffy pull at their bi-weekly meetings.

Modern music, poetry, beads, and "beatnik" effects transformed the Y's Psychedelic Room into a Coffee House in January.

At Christmas, the group presented a program of carols and hymns to the ladies at the Smith Home.

JUNIOR HI-Y TEENS

FRENCH CLUB

Candidates for membership wore mismatched shoes and socks to school and searched for items listed in French at the September Initiation.

The club sponsored the International Dinner in November, where all the Harbor language classes presented skits, and foreign dishes were served.

Members held a Christmas party, and in the spring they traveled to Cleveland to eat in a French restaurant and see a play presented in French.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club is open to all students who have taken Spanish. Its programs deal with the culture of Spanish-speaking countries.

The club adopted 12 children at the Children's Home for Christmas, providing them with presents, a tree, and dinner.

The Christmas party in December included the initiation of new members as well as games and refreshments.

LATIN CLUB

Members took part in plays and programs, played such games as Latin bingo, and enjoyed refreshments at meetings.

RED CROSS

The main activity was the Red Cross drive for money. The Harbor student body came out on top, with a total of $434.37, over 100 percent of the original goal.

The club used some of its funds to adopt needy families at Thanksgiving and Christmas. Members also used some of the money and a lot of effort to make and send gifts to the County Home.

This year members sent $50 to the Hurricane Camille Disaster Fund.

A special assembly and a guest speaker stressing the importance of the Red Cross were sponsored by the club.

The Red Cross continues to maintain the school infirmary.

The Girls' Athletic Association promotes good sportsmanship and enthusiasm for athletics through its outside activities and intramural programs in all sports.

The club contributed greatly to Harbor's spirit and turn-out at football games by sponsoring bus trips to away games.

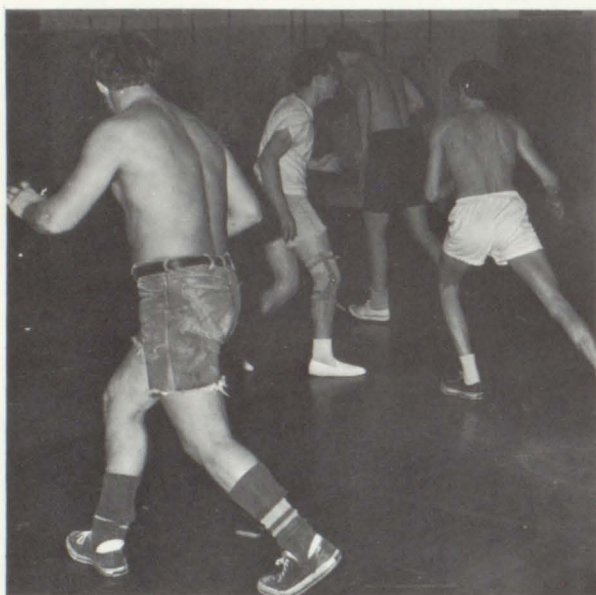

The annual Class Tournaments are a success due to this organization, which plans, directs, judges, and gives awards to the classes excelling in various fields.

INTRAMURALS

The boys' and girls' intramural teams have been in action all year. They participate in such sports as volleyball and basketball and possibly softball in the spring.

The games are played after school and offer upperclassmen a chance to participate in some forms of athletic activity.

FHA

They had parties at Halloween and Christmas for the children at the Children's Home. They held a bake sale every other week, and all year they helped a needy family in Kentucky.

With the Bula and Edgewood clubs they toured Kent State Extension.

Their goal is to encourage interest in home economics and to demonstrate the importance of worthy home membership.

The Senior Girls Club is a service organization. Members work on many worthwhile projects during the year and usually leave a school memorial.

This year the Senior Girls sponsored the Homecoming Dance, after the Harbor-P. V. football game. The Justice, a musical group from Arkon, provided the music.

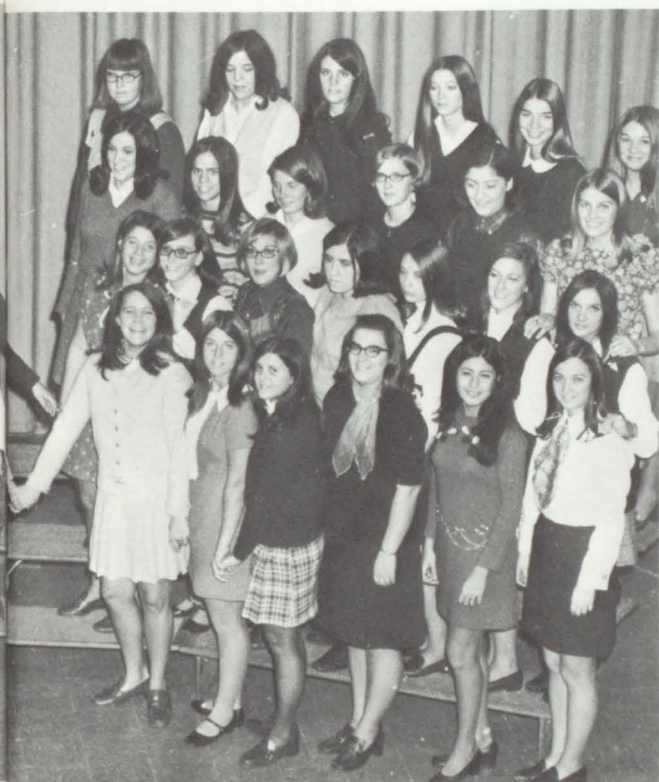

Every week, the club sold candy after school in the lower hall, and the girls had a popcorn stand at all the home football games.

Members traveled to the County Home, where they presented a singing program for the residents. The club also took part in the annual Variety Show.

The Harbor Senior Men's Club attempts to promote better relationships among the boys in the senior class through its activities.

In November they challenged the faculty men to a volleyball match, in which they lost two games out of three. This was followed later by a basketball game between the two groups.

Only 25 cents, and you get out of all afternoon classes -- this was the sales pitch the Senior Men used to sell tickets to the student body for their athletic contests with the teachers.

Members of the Senior Men's Club ordered shirts and sweaters with the club's name on them and held their annual rollicking year-end picnic at Lake Shore Park.

The Monogram Club works to tie Harbor athletics closer together and to preserve high standards in inter-school athletics.

1969

The 1969 Harbor Football Mariners didn't do as well as expected, but they provided spectators with a little bit of everything.

The team had a mark of 6 wins, 4 losses, which earned them 2nd in City Series play and 3rd in the NEC and County play.

Injuries plagued the team in mid-season.

True caliber of Harbor football was exhibited as the Mariners beat the last four teams and averaged 40 points while holding the opposition to 4 points. A streak now begins for 1970.

Head Coach Jim Orr and assistants Fran Bedont and George Shreyer presented the awards at the end of the season to Larry Hummer, Most Valuable Player, Most Valuable Offensive Back; Dale Theis, Coaches' Award; Jim Candela, Most Valuable Defense; Mark Phelps, Most Valuable Defensive Lineman; Jim Haight, Most Valuable Defensive Back; Gary Lillvis and Bob Millberg, Most Valuable Offensive Lineman.

The Mariner baseball team had a fine season, as they batted in a record of 10 wins, 8 losses, good enough for 3rd place in the NEC and 2nd in City Series play.

The team, coached by Larry Bragga and Bob Rich, was led by the cool-headed play of George Bucko, Gary Kotila, Ken Laveck, and Jerry Runyan.

At the end of the season the awards went to George Bucko, Most Valuable Player; Jim Candela, Best Batting Average; Jerry Runyan, Most Improved Player; Mark Wagner, Best Defensive Player.

Coach Bragga felt that Bucko's and Jerry Jeram's stolen bases in the Ash-tabula game were one of the highlights of the '69 season.

HEAD COACH LLOYD BUCK AND
J.V. COACH LARRY BRAGGA

The 1969-70 cage season for the Harbor Mariners basketball team was mainly a re-building one as they had a record of 5 wins and 13 losses.

The team finished 3rd in City Series play and 5th in NEC action.

After the loss of a few key men, the Mariners changed to a ball-control club.

Harbor's big scoring threat on offense was Senior Bob Millberg, who averaged 17 points per game, which earned him 1st in City Series and 4th in NEC scoring columns. Millberg also gained the Most Valuable Player Award.

Defensively, Harbor was led by Dave Lampela. Lampela won the Top Re-bouncer Award with a 10.5 rebounding average.

FRESHMEN

The last time a freshman basketball team has had a winning season at Harbor was the 1966-67 squad.

The 1969-70 squad has shown that big things are to come as the frosh had a record of 11 wins, 5 losses. Their record earned them 3rd in the Freshman League.

The team was led offensively by Pete Fleming, Jim Bollman, Rich Chupick, and Jim Fisher. Defensively, Bollman and Chupick also led their team.

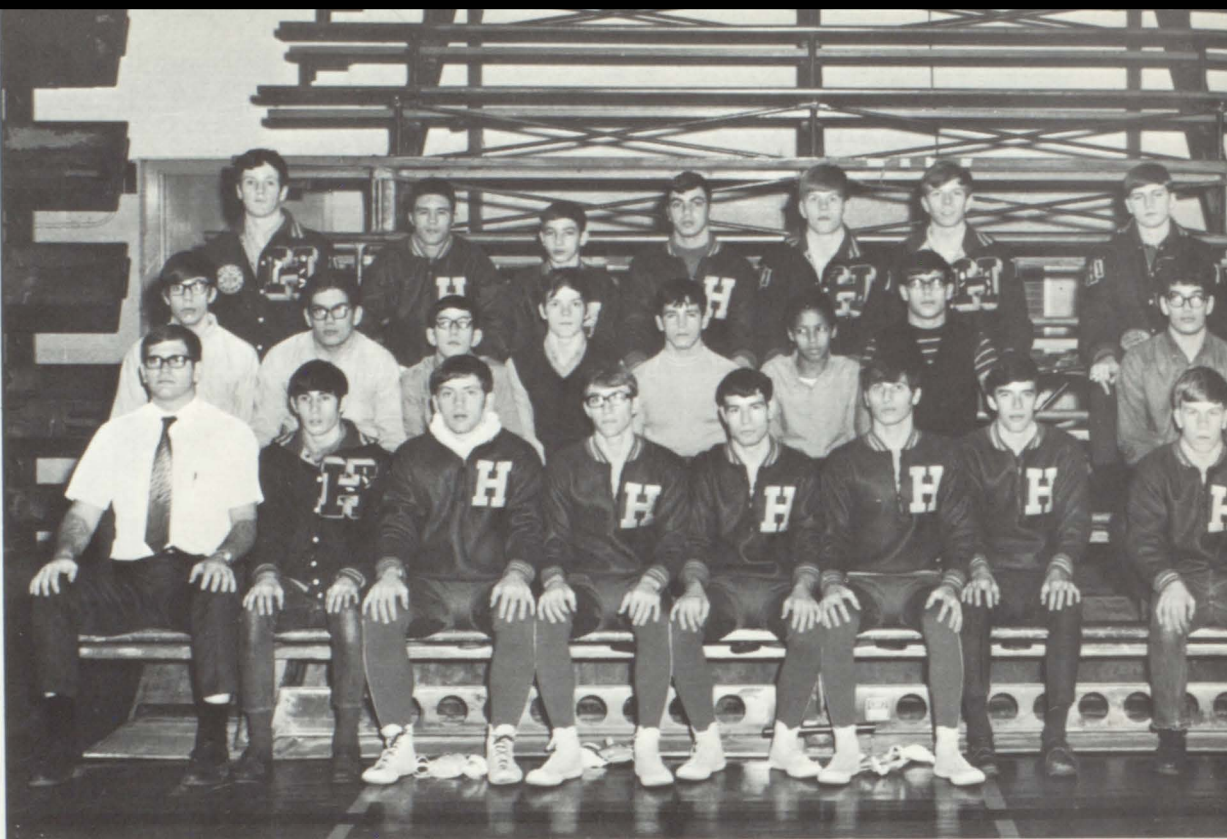

Coach Tim Mayse noted: "Our 11 victories can be attributed to fine team desire and spirit. They were the most unselfish group of athletes I've ever come in contact with."

WRESTLING '69-'70

"We showed great attitude and determination in overcoming tremendous odds," summed up Coach George Shreyer and Assistant Coach Fran Bedont about the Harbor High wrestling team.

The grapplers, gaining a 6-3 record in dual meets, were led during the first part of the mat season by the experienced seniors.

At the close of the season, Northend matmen Louie Mongenel (98), Mark Toomey (130), and Dante Monda (185), who were all undefeated in NEC play, led the team.

Season awards went to Mark Toomey, Most Valuable Player; Greg Harris (107), Most Improved Player; Herbie Osborne (130), John Keene (123), and Ron Huffman (137), Undefeated Pins.

The Graduation Gift That Nobody Ever Gets...

It's tops on the most-wanted list of every graduate, but no one ever gets it ... not the rich ... not the smart ... not the swinging ... not the cool.

That's because it can't be bought anywhere in your town or anywhere in the world for that matter. It has to come from inside you. It has to be earned the hard way, without help from your parents, your teachers, or your friends.

It's the ability to know what to do after the prom is over and the cap and gown have gone back to the rental service. It's the ability to make a decision about the army, or college, or a company that's going to help you amount to something.

Nobody ever said that knowing what to do is the simplest thing in the world. Nobody ever will. But they will tell you that the best choice is seldom the easiest one. They'll tell you that the right decision is often the one that takes careful planning, thinking and plain old guts when you get down to making it.

We hope that at this time you give your plans for the future at least the same amount of time you give to thoughts of the past. And if it's a career you decide upon, one that will give you a chance to prove your worth to yourself and a company, we hope you consider Reliance.

You see, we have confidence in you and your town. That's why we're here. Think it over, and let us know if we can help you pick out that decisive gift ... from yourself.
